THE TREE OF LIBERTY.

A POEM:
Composed by L. E. CRANE, and delivered in the Metropolitan Theater, Sacramento, by ALBERT HART, July 4th, 1867.

Raise the old flag! 'tis the day of all others
That Freedom should honor the flag of the Free
For whose sake the best blood of our fathers and brothers
Was poured round the roots of our Liberty Tree!
Shout! the dark hour of its trial and glory
Has swept not a star from its ocean of blue
But their beacon-lights flash o'er the waves of its story
To warn the false still, and encourage the true!

When Liberty, with bleeding heart,
And weeping eyes, and fettered hands,
Was trampled with unyielding art,
And hauled, and crushed, in many lands,
She left the homes of titled power,
And, sweeping westward o'er the sea,
Bore with her in our natal hour,
Her drooping, almost dying Tree.

The glad winds blew a boundless song
To kiss the wave-tips where she fed
The pallid gaze of giant wrong,
Who long had thought the Goddess dead;
And when the Old World shores grew dim,
Across the salt snow curling foam,
God's choicest sent forth a hymn
Of welcome to a New World home.

Strange was that home—a gloom, dark land
Uncut by toil, and all unknown
From ocean's wild and ocean strand,
Lay, desolate from zone to zone!
Yet all the wild and gloomy waste
Of fertile wilderness was free—
And there, for all mankind was placed
Our glorious, eternal Tree!

It grew, as grows all earthly good,
Slowly but with that matchless strength
Which, born of human brotherhood,
Lives through all time; until, at length,
When thirteen rugged, branching boughs
Had grown from firm roots, striking deep,
The light of truth began to rise
Old tyrants from a careless sleep.

They armed their scolding legions then,
And swift across the wat'ry sea
Great ships, with crimson coated men,
To waste the land with sword and flame;
But that the Tree bore noble fruit
Was shown in warfare's wild turmoil,
For those who came to cut the root
Remained to fertilize the soil.

Their tales were told at Bunker Hill,
At Yorktown, Monmouth, the Ten Nights,
And Valley Forge, where faith and will
Kept sacred ground o'er human filth;
And sacred ground o'er human filth,
And sacred ground o'er human filth,
And sacred ground o'er human filth,
And sacred ground o'er human filth,

New War shrank backward o'er the main,
And while around the scarless Tree
Flow the white dove of Peace again,
Great limbs spread out from sea to sea,
And branches, arching far and wide,
Shielding the growth of truth below,
Bent from the northern lake, with pride
To kiss the Gulf of Mexico.

Grand States, in graceful sisterhood,
Kiss, as by magic, through the land,
Bending their arms where Justice stood
With honest Labor, Land in hand,
Muscle by Mind, resistance made,
Have Agriculture richer life,
And brought luxuriant crops to aid
The ploughshare and the pruning knife.

Intelligence chose rulers there,
From out the ranks of toiling worth,
While Education, free as air,
Sent rays of light through the earth.
Wealth weaving Commerce sped away
With power, breadths of sail unfurled,
Which, like blown snow flake, flew, and lay
White on the waters of the world.

Religion met no warring storms
To crash her life on big rocks,
But died in many truthful forms,
Found all her mantles orthodox,
And from old lands beyond the sea
Great millions hither came to find
In fruitful home beneath our Tree,
The perfect freedom God designed.

But, lo! behold a baneful vine
Spring midway off the great Tree's stands
And creeping, serpent like, entwined
Fair, stately limbs, with stately hands!
Crime-tainted Avarice has borne,
From Rhine to the burning strand,
Black roots, by violence uprooted,
And hidden brought to curse the land.

The key-breath of Northern thought
Has all its tendrils southward blown,
Where stem and leaf, with venom fraught,
Hang dripping o'er the South alone.
It is a dark and mournful sight
To see the flowers of Freedom's wrath
Where dunge the vine with fearful blight
Burning their purity to death!

Murder has menaced by Pride
Where'er the spreading vine has caught,
Where poison fumes half-sufficed
Religion, Justice Truth and Thought,
And when mankind, by man oppressed,
Stems vainly strive to rise above,
A people blind to God's behest,
Are coming down from kindred blood.

In vain does Freedom try her power—
But One alone may break the doom,
It bids the vine bear reason's flower
Bursting in battle's awful bloom!
When slither's gans rant out alarm,
And drip the story the world down,
While horror creeps from farm to farm,
And quivered on from town to town,

As, wailing all the land, it come,
And North to South begin to pour
Deep, flashing sheets of steel and flame
To crush her fairest homes with gore,
Man did not make the right alone—
But God, in awe of olden blood,
Dooming a nation to atone
The crime of Slavery in blood!

While Treason's S. S. men grow,
Where brave men bide it day and grow,
The curse that cling to banded toll,
Have Traitors life and made them so!
When such men battle for the wrong,
And nobly die in bitter fight,
Let Truth proclaim, in noble song,
That wrong to them was sacred right.

Our and staunchest have grown
In blood and flame; and side by side
The sacred ones who marched and fought
The resting where they met, and died.
Best heroes! but who would know
Living Goddess! Kiss the red
That taught true all mankind are free
And equal in the sight of God!

Guard the grand flag! all the pure stripes are whiter
Since tears of atonement to love them were shed!
And the red tints of splendor grow deeper and brighter
Since God bathed its folds in the blood of our dead!
Lo! in a fair land that crime cannot sever
Our Tree shall bloom with a century's growth,
And the North and the South shall have clasped hands forever
That emblem of brotherhood guarded by both!

THE CAUSE OF THE REMOVAL OF MONROE, ABELL AND HERRON.—Gen. Sheridan, having been asked for his reasons for his removals, forwarded the following:
HEADQUARTERS 5th MILITARY DISTRICT,
NEW ORLEANS, June 5, 1867.
General U. S. Grant, Commanding Armies
United States, Washington.
GENERAL:—On the 30th of April last I removed from office Judge B. Abell, of the Criminal Court of New Orleans; Andrew J. Herron, Attorney General of the State of Louisiana, and John F. Monroe, Mayor of the city of New Orleans. These removals were made under the power granted me in what is usually termed the Military Bill, passed March 27, 1867, by the Congress of the United States. I did not deem it necessary to give any reason for the removal of these men, especially after the investigation made by the military board on the massacre of July 30th, 1866, and the report of the Congressional Committee on the same massacre; but as some inquiry has been made for the cause of removal, I would respectfully state as follows:

The Court over which Judge Abell presided is the only criminal court in the city of New Orleans, and a period of at least nine months previous to July 30, he had been educating a large portion of the community to the perpetration of this outrage, by almost promising no prosecution in his court against the offenders, in case such an event occurred. The record of this court will show that he fulfilled his promise, as not one of the guilty ones has been prosecuted. In reference to Andrew J. Herron, Attorney General of the State of Louisiana, I considered it my duty to indict these men before this criminal court. This he failed to do, and went so far as to attempt to impose on the good sense of the nation by indicting the victims of the riot, instead of the rioters; in other words making the innocent guilty and the guilty innocent. He was therefore an abettor of and coadjutor with Judge Abell in bringing on the massacre of July 30. Mayor Monroe controlled the element engaged in this riot, and when backed by an Attorney General who would not prosecute the guilty, and a judge who advised the grand jury to find the innocent guilty and let the murderers go free, felt secure in engaging his police force in the riot and massacre. With these three men exercising a large influence on the worst elements of this city, giving to these elements an immunity for riot and bloodshed, the General-in-Chief will see how insecure I felt in letting them occupy their present positions in the troubles which might occur in registration and voting in the reorganization. I am, General, very respectfully, your obedient servant,

P. H. SHERIDAN,
Major-General United States Army.

THE UNION PLATFORM.

The Union Party of the State of California, in Convention assembled, hereby present to the people of this State their platform and declaration of party principles:

Resolved, That in the present, as in the past, we are unflinchingly opposed to all traitorous practices, whether the same shall attempt to subvert our Union and control our Government by fraud and treachery from within, or force from without; and that upon the loyalty of the Nation and the peace of the world, we rely to re-establish liberty and forever the bonds of our National Union.

Resolved, That in reconstructing the nation its foundations should be justice and a cherishing loyalty, and we are willing that those so active to destroy, should be the chosen and preferred builders to erect it, and until it shall appear that in the States lately in rebellion loyal citizens, capable and ready to administer justice and enforce law in accordance with the principles of a government of freedom and equality, it is our wish that the Government be administered and the law enforced by the loyal agents of the Federal Government.

Resolved, That in the reconstruction plan of the late Congress we recognize a policy as wise as it is magnanimous, and when the respective States late in rebellion shall bring themselves within its provisions, we will welcome them as sisters and receive them as equals in a burning Union.

Resolved, That we deem the passage by the Legislature of a law establishing eight hours' labor as a legal day's work, eminently just and proper.

Resolved, That the importation of Chinese or any other people of the Mongolian race into the Pacific States or Territories, is in every respect injurious and dangerous to American labor, by tending to introduce and ruinous competition, and as evil that should be restricted by legislation and abated, by such legal and constitutional means as are in our power.

Resolved, That the future primary elections of the Union party in this State should be held under the provisions of the primary election law, and that such test should be prescribed and enforced, as shall exclude all persons not members of the Union party.

Resolved, That we fully approve the amendment to the Constitution of the State, presented by the Legislature of 1865, and providing that the Legislature shall have no power to make an appropriation of money for any purpose whatever, for a period longer than two years; that the same should be accepted by the Legislature, adopted by the people and become part of the Constitution of the State.

SEMI-WEEKLY ENQUIRER.

THE RHODE ISLAND LEDGE.—This claim is located in the group of veins at Little Bear Valley. The group is about ten miles east from here, situated at the lower or western end of Bear Valley, known as Little Bear Valley. They are reached by the California grade. Leaving the grade you descend for a mile into the valley, crossing the Dutch Flat branch of the Yuba ditch. Here are located the old McCulloch lead, the Champion, Santa Rosa and Blue Belle. Passing on in a northerly direction over a high ridge, crossing the Nevada branch of the Yuba ditch, about one and a half miles brings you into Steep Hollow, where is located the Rhode Island ledge. Workmen have been engaged in clearing away, and commencing a tunnel. The ledge is twelve or more feet wide where it crops out. The main body being of a bluish cast and carrying a large per cent. of blue and yellow sulphurets. The blue rock having a metallic luster is streaked with narrow lines of white or yellowish quartz which is also rich in sulphurets in a state of oxidation, looks well, and shows free gold to the naked eye.

Circus.—Messrs. Lee & Ryland performed here on Monday evening last to a large audience. Not less than six hundred were present. The entertainment furnished was satisfactory, and more than equaled the expectations of the community. The riding of the little girl, Mary Ann Lee, was good. She executed her feats with the self-possession of a master, and with a modesty becoming her years. Also the riding of Miss Bolin reached the standard of merit and gave pleasure. The acrobatic entertainment of Mr. Lee and his two sons was very good. The feats were performed with precision, and the attitudes, considering the ages of the children, were artistic. The clown got off some original with effect. The buffalo has too short legs to become an ox.

CHASING HIM.—By noticing our new advertisement the reader will perceive that Miner Frink, Jr., is now being chased by the responsible office of Justice of the Peace. As the race had commenced yesterday, it is of course impossible for us to say which has the best of it. If the office with all its weighty responsibilities should succeed in catching Mr. Frink, who is making commendable exertions to get out of the private walks of life it will be owing to the superior endeavors of his friends by placing spring-boards on the road to help him along.

MUSICAL ENTERTAINMENT.—We are requested to state that the ladies of the Methodist Episcopal Church will give a musical and ice-cream entertainment on Friday evening next at the National hotel building, opposite the Dutch Flat hotel. These entertainments are to continue weekly; the proceeds to be applied on the salary of the resident minister, Rev. Mr. Cool. All are invited to attend.

CURIOSITIES.—Dr. Johnson was famous for improvisations and caricature imitations. Here is a specimen:

If a man who turns up his nose,
Cries not when his father dies,
"Tis a proof that he had rather
Have a turnp than his father!

Here is another specimen of a finer order from the same source:

In bed we lurch, in bed we err,
And horn in bed, in bed we die;
The near approach a bed may show
Of human blood to human woe.

The following is an inscription on a tombstone in Massachusetts. It is beautiful:

I came in the morning—it was spring,
And I smiled;
I walked out at noon—it was summer,
And I was glad;
I sat me down at even—it was autumn,
And I was sad;
I laid me down at night—it was winter,
And I slept.

The following is from the pen of a celebrated Irish wit. Lord E. declared, at a large party, that "a wife was only a tin canister tied to one's tail;" upon hearing which the wit presented Lady E. with these dogmatic lines:

Lord E. at woman presuming to rail,
Calls a wife a "tin canister tied to one's tail."
And fair Lady Anna, while the subject he carries on,
Seems hurt at his lordship's degrading comparison.

But wherefore frown, Lord? Consider aright,
A canister's useful, and useful, and bright;
And shouldst thou not original purity hide,
That's the fault of the puppy to whom it is tied!

The celebrated comedian, Finn, is tied to the following morceau of the day previous to one of his benefits at the Tremont Theater, in Boston:

Like a crane full of coals I burn,
A great full house to see;
And, if I prove not a careful too,
A great fool I shall be!

An actor in Baltimore, some years ago, having to play in Othello, and not being an apt in his part, found himself at fault when he came to this passage:

"Take up this mangled matter at the best."
Not wishing, by hesitating, to call forth the goose from the audience, he spoke it in this wise:

Take up the star-spangled banner and bear it to the West!

Which drew down a thundering outburst of patriotic applause, instant.

THANKS, AGAIN.—Our thanks are again due to that persistent, everlasting, foremost, first-to-come news dealer in San Francisco, commonly known as Major Jack Strubman, but really the fleet winged news messenger of the Pacific coast.

MEDICAL.

S. T.-1860-X.

"JES! SO!" "EXACTLY!"—Solon Shingle said they were there "every time." If he felt "owley" in the morning, he took Plantation Bitters; if he felt weary at night he took Plantation Bitters; if he lacked appetite, weak, languid, or mentally oppressed, he took Plantation Bitters; and they never failed to set him on his pins square and firm.

A few bottles of PLANTATION BITTERS will cure Nervous Headache,

Cold Extremities and Feverish Lips,
Sore Stomach and Peptic Breath,

Flatulency and Indigestion,
Nervous Affections,

Excessive Fatigue and Short Breath,
Pain over the Eyes,

Mental Despondency,
Prostration, Great Weakness,

Sallow Complexion, Weak Bowels, &c., which are evidences of Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia.

After a long research, we are able to present the most pleasant, the most remarkable cure for those horrid nightmarish diseases the world has ever produced. Within one year over six hundred and forty thousand persons have taken the Plantation Bitters, and not an instance of complaint has come to our knowledge!

It is a most effective tonic and agreeable stimulant, suited to all conditions of life.

The report that it relies upon mineral substances for its active properties are wholly false.

The original quality and high standing of these goods will be sustained under every and all circumstances. They have already obtained a sale in every town, village, parish and hamlet among civilized nations. Base imitators try to come as near our name and style as they can, and because a poor article cannot be sold as well as a good one, they do some support from parties who do not care what they sell. Be on your guard. See our private stamp over the cork.

MUSTANG LINIMENT.

Have you a hurt child or a lame horse? Use the Mustang Liniment. For cuts, sprains, bruises, swellings and caked breasts, the Mustang Liniment is a certain cure.

For rheumatism, neuralgia, stiff joints, stings and bites, there is nothing like the Mustang Liniment.

For sprained horses, the poll evil, ringbone and sore shins, the Mustang Liniment is never false.

For wind galls, scratches, big-head and spunk, the Mustang Liniment is worth its weight in gold.

Cuts, bruises, sprains and swellings are so common and certain to occur in every family, that a bottle of this Liniment is the best investment that can be made.

It is more certain than the doctor—it saves time in sending for the doctor—it is cheaper than the doctor, and should never be dispensed with.

In hitting the bottle from the fire, it is red and scalded me terribly. * * * The Mustang Liniment extracted the pain and caused the sore to heal rapidly, and left very little scar.

CHAS. FOSTER, 420 Broad str., Phil.

Mr. S. Lynch of Hyde Park, N. Y., writes: "My horse was considered worthless, sprained his side the use of the Mustang Liniment. I have sold him for $150. Your Liniment is doing wonders up here."

All genuine is wrapped in steel plate engravings. Beware of cheap imitations. The genuine has the private U. S. stamp of Demas Barnes & Co. over the top. Look closely. Sold by all Druggists at 25, 50 cents, and $1.

REDINGTON & CO.'S COLUMN.

REDINGTON & CO. S

ESSENCE OF JAMAICA GINGER.

THIS valuable preparation, containing in a highly concentrated form all the properties of the Jamaica Ginger, has become one of the most popular domestic remedies for all diseases of the stomach and digestive organs.

As a tonic it will be found invaluable to all persons recovering from debility, whether produced by fever or otherwise; for whilst it imparts to the system all the glow and vigor that can be produced by wine or brandy, it is entirely free from the reactionary effects that follow the use of spirits of any kind.

It is also an excellent remedy for female who suffer from difficult menstruation, giving almost immediate relief to the spasms that so frequently accompany that period.

It gives immediate relief to Nausea, caused by the riding in a railroad car, or by sea-sickness, or other causes. It is also valuable as an external application for Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, etc.

REDINGTON & CO.,
SOLE AGENTS for the PACIFIC COAST.

STOP THAT COUGHING!

SOME OF YOU CAN'T, and we pity you. You have tried every remedy but the one destined by its intrinsic merit to suppress all similar preparations. It is not surprising that you should be reluctant to try something else after the many experiments you have made of trashy compounds foisted on the public as a certain cure; but

is really the VERY BEST remedy ever compounded for the cure of Coughs, Colds, Sore Throat, Asthma, Whooping Cough, Bronchitis and Consumption. Thousands of people in California and Oregon have been already benefited by the surprising curative powers of

and with one accord give it their unqualified approbation. We now address ourselves to all who are unacquainted with this, the greatest Panacea of the age, for the healing of all diseases of the Throat and Lungs, assuring you that has cured thousands and it will cure YOU if you try it. This invaluable medicine is pleasant to the taste; soothing, healing and strengthening in its effects; entirely free from all deleterious drugs, and perfectly harmless under all circumstances.
